And off we GO!

1. Get a WEBSITE pronto! Getting your business online is essential to marketing your business. A website can be used to attract customers to you and also to market and advertise your products and services.
2. Start a Blog on your website. Blogging is a great and inexpensive way to get your message out about your business and can also be used to boost your Search Engine Rankings on the Internet.
3. Create a marketing video and add it to your website. When it's complete, upload it to YouTube and then embed it on your website, and other places on the web.
4. Write an E-Book and give it away for free on your website.
5. Run a Contest from your website to generate some buzz for your small business.
6. Get SOCIAL! Setup Social Media Accounts on Facebook, LinkedIn, and Twitter for your business.
7. Setup a Facebook Fan Page. Here is a Video on How to Setup a Facebook Fan Page.
8. Add Tutorials, Helpful Tips and Videos to your Facebook Fan Page. Facebook is the #1 Social Media Giant and currently holds 955 million users. If there is one place that you should market your business, Facebook should be one of them. Brian Honigman from LunaMetrics put together a great list of facebook marketing tips. Be sure to check it out to get some ideas for marketing your business.

9. Leverage the power of LinkedIn. I can definitely attest to this statement. I have received business referrals, invites for speaking engagements and other opportunities that resulted in new business from LinkedIn. Here are some helpful tips on leveraging LinkedIn to generate business.
10. Tweet it up! Use twitter to announce discounts, promotions and other newly launched products or services for your business.
11. Create E-mail Newsletter campaigns. I highly recommend sending e-mail newsletters to your current and prospective client list on a monthly or bi-monthly basis. Here is an article that features 30 content ideas for email newsletters.
12. Use Canvassing in your business! That's right....gas up your car, get some Door Hangers, flyers and other marketing materials and pay a visit to local business parks in your neighborhood to leave information about your products or services.
13. Add Discounts and Promotions to your Invoices as you send them out to your clients.
14. Here is an EXTREMELY powerful Tip.... Use the Every Door Direct Mail Retail Program. The Every Door Direct Mail Retail is an affordable program designed to help small businesses market their products and services to a large number of local businesses in surrounding areas. With this program, you can send up to 5,000 mailpieces a day per Zip Code and only pay 16 cents for postage per marketing piece. Please be sure to read more about the Every Door Direct Mail Retail Program Here.
15. Team up with your vendors and suppliers. They will be more than willing to provide assistance to you with marketing your business.
16. Consider Cold Calling. Purchase a list, and begin cold calling local businesses in your target market to give them information about your services. If you're not comfortable with cold-calling, consider outsourcing this task to someone else.
17. Give Calls to Actions and Deadlines on your Promotions. Most people don't know this, but creating Urgency for prospects to respond to your offers will give them a push to respond to your offers faster than usual. Check out examples of calls to action here.

18. Offer a Free Service Coupon or Consultation on the back of your business cards
19. Ask for Business referrals from your current clients, friends or family members.
20. Create a customer referral program for your business. For example, you can offer your current clients discounts on your products or services or even small cash awards in exchange for a business referral. Here is an example of a great referral program incentive:

"Enter each referral of yours and we will send them a special certificate for 10% off their first service visit. Once the certificate is redeemed we will issue a $100 service credit to your account. It's that simple. Refer them before somebody else does. Thank you for your business and your vote of confidence".
